$65.00 in Prizes for Farmers Gardens

Agricultural Association Hold Enthusiastic Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Gleichen District Agricultural Association last Thursday night was well-attended and proved quite interesting, all present showing no little enthusiasm in the business brought up.

The first business was the announcement by the secretary that Mr. Prowse had returned the cheque for $25 which the Association had ordered issued him for his expenses as delegate to the Agricultural Fair Association held in Edmonton. President Dufos thereupon stated he thought it a little too much as Mr. Prowse had given his time and should not bear the expense as well. Mr. Prowse being present said that he preferred to return the money as he thought the Association needed it at the present and he was anxious to see it flourish. The president on behalf of the Association then expressed sincere thanks to Mr. Prowse for his generosity.

A letter was read from Mr. Prowse reminding the Association of his offer of sometime ago to give a first prize for a farmers' garden competition, conditionally that the Association give a second, third and fourth prizes, which he intimated he believed in thus encouraging the farmers in gardening they would at the same time be giving better prospects for the exhibition, and he expressed the hope that some one would make a similar offer for town gardens.

All present evinced interest in the subject, but Mr. Dufos thought it was sweeping too much from one man and offered to give half the amount of the first prize. Considerable discussion followed in which it was agreed that entries should be made at once with the secretary and a fee of $2 asked in order that a fair number of contestants might be secured, and also that the judges may visit the gardens from time to time.

A motion was finally passed accepting the offer of Messrs. Prowse and Dufos to make the first prize $30.00, and the Association give other prizes of $20, $10 and $5.

It was thought these excellent prizes are well worth competing for and that a good number of entries will be secured. The Call being requested to make the announcement as prominent as possible in this issue.

The president was pleased to say he had secured a new secretary, viz. Mr. MacLennan, whose numerous other duties caused him to resign. In the person of Mr. MacLennan. Accordingly a motion passed appointing him secretary and also another official of the association along with Tress. Headquarters at night along and papers on behalf of the Association.

Another necessary motion carried that Mr. MacLennan prepare a statement of his salary and other disbursements and if found correct be paid.

Considerable time was spent in discussing the necessary repairs to fences and cleaning up the grounds. Mr. Walsh submitted two plans for gates at the entrance. It was at last decided that the gates were quite willing to turn out and give one or two days work and it was suggested the mayor be asked to proclaim a holiday for the purpose.

Gleichen to Celebrate Victoria Day

Arranging Good Program

At the meeting of the committee appointed by the Gleichen District Agricultural Association to arrange for the sports on the 24th of May, it was decided to make this an event and to invite all the surrounding districts and to make a real holiday.

A prominent feature of the day will be the attendance of the Gleichen Citizens Band to enliven the proceedings, and that a continuous round of pleasure may be assured an open air dancing platform will be erected for dancing during the afternoon and evening.

The following members of the committee were appointed to arrange the different parts of the program and will be glad to have any suggestions and help:

MUSILO, Wm. Walsh,
BALL, GAMES, Wm. Walsh,
TUG-O'-WAR, T. H. Beach,
HORSE RACES, Etc., Messrs. James, Young and McMillan.
CHILDREN'S SPORTS, Messrs. Bartoch and Beach,
ADVERTISING, Messrs. Beach and Mallory,
REFRESHMENTS, Messrs. Bartoch and Mallory.

It is the intention to make this a real holiday in every sense of the word, and every one is invited to join in and help make this a success and a good time that will long be remembered.

Call Issues Wednesday in Future

Owing to the fact that the stage for the Queenstown district now leaves Calgary instead of Gleichen as heretofore every Thursday morning The Call is obliged to change one day of publication from Thursday to Wednesday in order to connect with the mail at Calgary. Only the day train leaves mail at Calgary and we must have The Call if the post office here at noon Wednesday.

Therefore, The Call must have all advertisements in hand every Monday morning and our news columns closed Tuesday evening as it will keep our entire staff busy to complete our press work, fold, address and mail our papers.

Messrs. Bartoch, Walsh and Dufos were finally selected a committee to have the work done and empowered to obtain the necessary material, and to call on members for such work as they can do. The intention being that the committee lay out the work and superintend it, all agreeing to bring hammers, saws, shovels, implements, etc. or whatever the committee wanted, and work under their command.

Be at attention when the committee commands you.

It being stated the Stampede Committee has several hundred dollars worth of lumber, fencing and other material on the Fair grounds Messrs. Prowse, Day and Beach for that day, and several others were appointed a committee with power to set to interview the Stampede and adjust all claims.

The subject of holding a celebration on May 24th occupied time in discussion, during which Manager Walsh of the Baseball Club stated he could promise a good baseball match for that day, and several other excellent suggestions were made for providing a good day's sports.

A motion carried unanimously that the president appoint a committee to prepare a program and arrange for the sports of the day.

Messrs. Bartoch, Young, Beach, McMillan, Walsh and Mallory being the fortunate appointees.

Save by the W.B.S. plan.

A "quarter" here a Thrift Stamp.

Capt. Robert Pearson Talks of Y.M.C.A. Work

Wednesday evening of last week Captain Robert Pearson gave a very interesting address in the Opera House, vividly portraying the scenes in Paris when the news of the signing of the armistice reached there and telling of many incidents he witnessed during this war in which he was wounded. Being in charge of "Y" work at the front for a time he was able to give first-hand facts.

One of the best reasons for supporting the Red Triangle fund throughout the country is that the Y.M.C.A. is organizing an effort to extend its usefulness into the small towns and country districts. The Y.M.C.A. did at the front, and it is doing so now. It has thousands of dollars of athletic equipment, theatres, canteens, shows, concert parties, books and magazines, and many other comforts for the fighting soldiers. The canteens of the Y.M.C.A. were operated at exactly the same scale of prices to the soldiers as the army canteens, but in addition to that the Y.M.C.A. gave the soldiers in France 5 per cent. of the gross sales in their canteens to be used in purchasing special comforts for the men.

In addition to the chaplain service, the Canadian Y.M.C.A. was the mainstay of the morale of the Canadian army. It did a work which no other organization could have accomplished, and soldiers are today returning to their own country better men because the Y.M.C.A. was with them at the front.

And now the Y.M.C.A. finds its work is actually increased with the closing of the war. During demobilization the Y.M.C.A. is even a more important factor than during the fighting. Every young man coming back has its Y.M.C.A. representative with him, with books and writing paper, and everything a soldier can need. Every troop train throughout Canada and on the troopships will be $100,000.

In addition to its military activities, the Y.M.C.A. is endeavoring to extend its system of entertainment and training throughout the country districts, particularly in connection with work among the boys, and in undertaking a regular campaign with this end in view. Such an effort is being undertaken with the support of the country.

The Red Triangle Campaign, which opened on May 1st, calls upon Alberta for $106,500, but $100,000 will be spent in Alberta during the present year on national Y.M.C.A. effort. It is hoped that the Y.M.C.A. will be able to give the province a generous response will be made.

Our old friend J. A. Ramsey has opened a department store in Calgary and already is making the salaries at and pay attention to the public address. "My, but I thought I was reading The Call for a moment when I saw Ramsey's ad in the Herald," said one lady, "I read it and he was so full of spirit and wit." That is Mr. Ramsey's secret of success in advertising. Just through his advertising just to the business in the stores. We wish him every success in his new venture and know there is no one else in Calgary.

Who can estimate accurately the value of the big storm for this year's crops.

Bad Breath IS CAUSED BY CATARRH

Canadians suffer more from Catarrh than from any other disease. On this account Catarrh is dangerous and should be checked at the outset.

It isn't necessary to take internal medicine to cure Catarrh. There is a far better method.

Doctors how treat Catarrh by sending a purifying, healing vapor through the breathing organs. In this way the germs of Catarrh are destroyed.

The only successful vapor treatment is CATARRHOZONE, which the patient breathes through a special inhaler to the real seat of the trouble. The rich, piney essences of Catarrhozone heal and soothe all inflamed surfaces. They effectively treat the nose, throat and lungs with a powerful antiseptic that destroys irritation at once.

Catarrhozone brings into the system the balmy air of the pine forest. It cures completely colds, coughs, catarrh, weak throat, and bronchitis.

Once tried, Catarrhozone is always used. Nothing so pleasant, so simple, so quick to relieve, so absolutely sure to permanently cure. Accepted by months, and costs $1.00; small size 50c; sample trial size 25c; at all dealers.

THE COMLYN ALIBI

— BY —
HEADON HILL

WARD, LOCK & CO., LIMITED
London, Melbourne, and Toronto

The clock in the stable yard at the Court was striking two as the gallant old machine clattered under the portico of the ancient home of the Comlyns. Kenyon jumped down and rang the bell, but there was an appreciable delay before it was answered by Jevons, whose usually impetuous check seemed to have crumpled into a welter of mixed emotions which Kenyon did not attempt to analyse. For behind the butler, wearing an odd air of possession, stood a genial person in a rather pronounced check suit, whom he had often examined, and more rarely cross examined, in the witness box at the Old Bailey.

"By Jove, Swayne, I'm glad it's you," said Kenyon. "I have been wondering which of the pack Sir Savile had chosen for the job."

"You are not gladder to see me than I am to see you, sir," was the reply. "We are all at sixes and sevens at present, but you will be simply a tower of strength. Come in, Jevons will forgive me for doing the honors in his behalf. I only brought him to the door because he and I are inseparable—regular Siamese twins—just now."

"Good for you," said Kenyon. "Where is the master of the house? Back from the church yet?"

"No, sir. We cannot understand why Mr. Noakes, whom I am proud to call my colleague, has gone down to expedite matters. It seems as if there must have been some hitch in the proceedings. But do come in, and bring your friend with you, if you like. Jevons presides over a most hospitable pantry. Mr. Noakes was full of his praises as he drove me over."

"Coming in, Doctor Kyrle?" Kenyon turned to the rugged faced old man who had been an attentive listener from the car.

"I shouldn't like to miss it," growled the doctor, and when he had run his car a few lengths from the portico he joined the others at the door.

"It's good news that you are a doctor," said Swayne drily. "You may be wanted." And he turned again to Kenyon. "Do you know who Morgan is?"

"No, he never passed through my hands—for prosecution or defence. I have surprised me rather, but I suppose he has been clever enough to keep within the law."

"He hasn't been up against it in your time, but you have probably heard of the Tucson case, fifteen years ago?"

"It is a standard case, and formed a precedent which judges are fond of quoting. Tucson was sentenced to death on clear evidence of his guilt, but was set at liberty by the appeal court on a point of law," replied Kenyon eagerly. "You don't mean to say—"

"I do," the C.I.D. man clipped the obvious question. "Morgan is Tucson. Our search of the house at Hampstead yesterday disclosed documents which put it beyond doubt."

CHAPTER XXXIV

"King's Evidence"

The gaze of the party at the altar rails was fixed on the portly superintendent as he moved slowly up the aisle. They took the intervention of Mr. Noakes in different ways, according to their widely differing temperaments. Morgan's face was convulsed with vindictive triumph. Professor Zimbalist's nose and ears glowed a deeper carmine, as always when he was agitated. Archibald Comlyn's peevish impatience gave way to a resigned expectation, because he foresaw a speedy termination to his personal discomfort. Mavis alone remained unchanged in outward expression. Like a marble statue she had suffered the long suspense; like a marble statue she viewed the approaching climax which would shatter the underlying motive of her self-sacrifice. One and all they expected to see the heavy hand of Superintendent Noakes fall on the shoulder of Sir Anthony West.

But it was the unexpected that happened. With never a glance at the young baronet in his pew half way down the aisle, Noakes passed on and approached the group in the chancel.

"If you are waiting for Mr. Clegg, sir," he said, quite respectfully, to Morgan, "I beg leave to intimate that it ain't no use. The curate is by now up at Comlyn Court, ready to have his depositions taken along with the other fresh evidence you was speaking of. Mike Hever is there, and his daughter Susan, the parlormaid, has something to say."

Morgan restrained himself with a mighty effort. He had gained the impression from Noakes' homely way that it was due to misplaced zeal on the part of this rural officer that his plans had been ungaraged. He would have given rein to his anger if he had not swiftly calculated that the check must be only temporary, and that his cunningly prepared scheme must prevail in the end. The witnesses he had squared, but had hoped not to have to use, had somehow been dragged forward and he would have to bluff it out along that line—that was all.

"All right, Noakes," he said. "We'll come up to the Court and thresh it out there. You want the lot of us, I suppose?"

"All but Mr. and Miss Comlyn," replied Noakes. "And," he added, after running a judicial eye over the rector's wife, "we needn't trouble Mrs. Burbury—yet."

Morgan knitted his brows in momentary indecision. He had to readjust his plans in face of the new situation created, as he thought, by the untimely intervention of Noakes. Fortified by the Segur Road alibi, he was prepared to defy any deduction likely to be drawn from the story which Sir Anthony West, backed eventually by Laura Gaspard, would tell in his own defence. By producing the Sleigh police witnesses there was no doubt that West would have no difficulty in clearing himself, and that would not matter a jot. Morgan's supreme effort was directed at securing the radium control by marriage with Mavis. He didn't care the toss of a coin what happened to Sir Anthony afterwards, but, in the meantime, he felt that his only policy was to bring all his heavy guns to bear on fostering the suspicion against Sir Anthony which Noakes had so unaccountably reawakened. Mavis had shown herself docile and apathetic. He had his special license. There was no reason why the marriage should not take place on the morrow if Sir Anthony was locked up that day. A week at least would have to elapse before he could extricate himself.

But the cloud of witnesses could not be too dense. Michael Hever, of course, he counted on to jump at the revived chance of "downing" his hereditary enemy, and Susan Hever would follow her father's lead. Jevons, he held in the hollow of his hand. Yet there was another whom he could not so easily ignore. It was a fair sample of a gas bag anyhow. Sparring for time, I should say. Waiting for something, eh?

"Time is always a valuable asset," Mr. Swayne rejoined with a silky smoothness than won an approving nod from Kenyon. "A little heat is permissible, for I ought to have introduced myself—as one of the chief assistants of Sir Savile Weldon, the director of the criminal investigation department. I am so glad to see Sir Anthony West here. I trust that your presence means, Sir Anthony, that you have decided to remove the stumbling block which has so cramped our efforts—not only to clear your good name, but to run down Mrs. Morgan's murderer."

"Bah! you are talking through your hat," snarled Morgan, beside himself with rage.

Tony ignored the outburst and addressed Swayne direct: "I am perfectly willing to explain my position and why I have remained silent. I understand that Miss Gaspard is willing to corroborate me."

"Then, if you will be so good, Mr. Noakes, we will have Miss Gaspard back," the detective turned to the superintendent, who pressed cut and came in again with Laura. Morgan flung a murderous scowl at her, but the girl returned it with an impudent glance, quickly effaced as she turned to Sir Anthony.

to inquire of the chauffeur sitting in his own magnificent car.

"Looks like the doctor's sir, from St. Brannocks."

"One of the maids got the toothache," Morgan shrugged a contemptuous shoulder. "Stay where you are, Leroux. The car may be wanted."

"We had better go into the library," he said, catching up with the others in the hall. "I think you said that your witnesses were there, Noakes. Here, I'll show you the way."

Opening a door on the left of the hall, he stood aside for his flock to pass in. Then he himself crossed the threshold of the library, and those who were watching him from the far end of the room saw a curious film suddenly veil the smiling malice in the cruel eyes. For there were present, apparently included in Superintendent Noakes' schedule of new witnesses, certain persons for whose presence Mr. Jasper Morgan had not bargained.

Clayton Kenyon, for instance, had assuredly not entered into his expectations; nor had Mr. Swayne, the capable gentleman from Scotland Yard, who seemed to have constituted himself a sort of master of the ceremonies, and whose air of being in charge Morgan did not like at all. He would have much preferred that the affair should be conducted by local talent in the shape of Noakes. The presence of Mike Hever, and of the latter's daughter, the smart parlour maid, was reassuring. The pent-up Hever venom of ages would surely be let loose by the undoing of West. And Jevons, too, standing so markedly scrutator at the elbow of that managing Londoner, counted infallibly as a deadly shaft in his own quiver.

But what, in the name of all mysteries, meant that well-poised figure sitting half concealed by the window curtains? What was Laura Gaspard, the deserter to the camp of the enemy, doing in that gallery? What part was she to play on a stage set, as he understood it, for the arrest of the man she had helped to dupe? Had she suspected of what Morgan regarded as her treachery, and returned to the old allegiance for her father's sake? It was as astounding to find her in Cornwall as it was to find Kenyon. He had believed them both to have been raked in by the police raid, which, in true Napoleonic vein, he had instigated on his own Mayfair gambling hell.

He was about to join her and put questions, when the voice of Mr. Swayne of Scotland Yard, suddenly incisive and full of authority, checked his steps towards the window. "The ladies had better retire," said the C.I.D. man. "We can send for them, if and when, their assistance is required. Mr. Noakes, will you kindly show Miss Comlyn, Miss Gaspard, and—er—Miss Hever into the next room—the billiard room, I think?"

Tony, grown bold under the indifference of a premonition he was much too dense to define, nodded to Mavis as she passed out, and his simple soul jumped to the seventh heaven of bliss. In the distraught eyes of the girl he loved there flickered an answering signal—the ghost of a smile unmistakable smile.

"Now," proceeded Mr. Swayne briskly when Noakes returned from escort duty, "we will get to business. A month ago there was a crime committed in this house. My friend, Mr. Noakes was dealing with it on our lines till he was balked by well, by circumstances over which he had no control. The department of the public service to which I have the honor to belong is hampered by red tape regulations which I need not explain. When Mr. Noakes was called off the scent he was, in common with others, misled by sedulously spread rumors affecting a gentleman since shown to be innocent of the—"

Morgan, glaring in amazement, let his temper break out. "Look here," he thundered. "Who the devil are you—coming over the heads of things in my house? You seem to be a fair sample of a gas bag anyhow. Sparring for time, I should say. Waiting for something, eh?"

"Time is always a valuable asset," Mr. Swayne rejoined with a silky smoothness than won an approving nod from Kenyon. "A little heat is permissible, for I ought to have introduced myself—as one of the chief assistants of Sir Savile Weldon, the director of the criminal investigation department. I am so glad to see Sir Anthony West here. I trust that your presence means, Sir Anthony, that you have decided to remove the stumbling block which has so cramped our efforts—not only to clear your good name, but to run down Mrs. Morgan's murderer."

Greater Demand for Wool

Regina, Sask. — High prices for wool, mutton and lambs for some years to come, is prophesied by Professor W. H. J. Tisdale of the University of Saskatchewan. The professor believes that the price of wool this year will not fall below 45 or 50 cents per pound and may go even higher. Sir Arthur Goldfinch, one of the greatest living authorities on the sheep and wool situation, recently declared that the stock of wool in the world's markets would be less in 1920 than in 1919. He estimated a large increase in wool production, but still larger increases in the demand by consumers.

"Come in, all of you," he said. "We won't stand on ceremony, by ringing for the butler. You lead the way, Noakes, as you are in charge of the proceedings. See to Miss Comlyn, will you. After you, professor; I will bring up the rear."

He was about to follow, when he caught sight of a mud-spattered, dust-encrusted two-seater car, drawn up outside the portico.

"Whose is that?" he stepped back

Unloading Grain By Air Power

The two powerful floating pneumatic grain elevators, recently put into service at the port of London are admirable examples of modern British labor-saving equipment. Each elevator floats on a 60-foot pontoon carrying a 220 horse power oil engine which drives a high speed turbo-exhaustor by means of which a partial vacuum is caused in a suction pipe line. The air rushing in at the free end of the line sucks up the grain from the vessel's hold and deposits it in a receiving chamber, from which it is discharged through a valve and thereafter handled mechanically. Two suction pipes are provided with each float and they are raised and lowered by means of an electric winch driven by an explosion-proof electric motor. A similar type of motor (rendered necessary by the inflammable dust raised in handling grain) drives an elevator which delivers the grain into a weigh house, where the grain is automatically weighed. Thence it passes through shoots into sacks or into hopper barges alongside the pontoon. A 35 horse power oil engine supplies the current for power and lighting purposes. All the plant and equipment were British throughout. Pneumatic elevators of this type not only save labor by thoroughly cleaning out a ship's hold without retrimming, but they are much healthier for the workmen than any other equipment, as special machinery is used for extricating the dust. Both pontoons have been in regular service for some time and have proved thoroughly satisfactory. Each has a capacity of 100 tons per hour when working with wheat.

Cheap Luncheons Allowed in Paris

Government Fixes Price on Food Sold to Public

Paris. — What is practically an eighteen penny luncheon—a thing unheard of in Paris since the war began—is now available to patrons of the cheaper Paris restaurants. This startling return to almost pre-war conditions is due to the bold policy of the government in throwing on the market enormous stocks of food-stuffs, on condition that they are sold to the public at fixed prices. The meals consist of a cut from the joint or some other form of meat (95 centimes) vegetables (35 centimes) or 1 franc 80 in all. The only flaw in the picture is that 30 centimes extra is to be charged for a table napkin which will almost certainly be obligatory—a characteristic illustration of extra profit making which seems ineradicable in this country.

MOTHER! YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, FROM CONSTIPATION

If tongue is coated, breath bad, stomach sour, clean liver and bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that his little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomachache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without groining and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easily after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Community Organization For Child Welfare

All Must Co-operate Sympathetically and Efficiently

It needs more than intelligent individual effort on the part of mothers and others concerned if child life is to be conserved, and the wastage of this precious national resource prevented in the future. Some things can only be secured by community action. All must co-operate sympathetically and efficiently if all the children of the community are to be properly protected. The most efficient and conscientious mother works against heavy odds if there is a laxity throughout the community with regard to such matters as cleanliness, epidemics and moral environment. The children of even the cleanest homes are never entirely safe as long as dirt and disease are allowed to harbor in any section. A slum or shack district is a menace to the whole community, and the more fortunate people who live in the more favorable surroundings often pay heavily for their selfish indifference to the well-being of those of their neighbors who are less fortunate. Social service not only brings its benefits to those served, but, very often to those who serve. And in the sphere of child welfare it, not infrequently, proves to be a most effective means of self-protection. Children catch one another's diseases, hence the necessity for community hygiene. Disease producing germs abhor cleanliness, but thrive in filth. They are soon destroyed by sunlight, but survive long in dirt, dampness and darkness. Some day our enlightened communities will insist on a minimum of cleanliness and decent living conditions. All children should have the same chance, and whatever is necessary to secure this should be the concern of all.

A large proportion of the waking hours of most growing children is spent outside the home, where they are exposed to moral as well as physical contamination. It is manifestly in the interest of all the children and homes that parents should take an intelligent interest in other children than their own, and by united action, raise the standard of the whole physical and moral environment of childhood. Much could be done if existing agencies were better supported. There is need for very much more sympathetic co-operation between parents and the public school. The same is undoubtedly true of the Sunday school. This institution is today the most effective one we have, making for the moral uplift of childhood, but with a more sympathetic backing its possibilities for increased efficiency along this line are almost limitless. The public support of the health authorities would also make for the elimination of epidemics, pure milk and water supply, and sanitation. And when communities learn to appreciate better than they do now, the paramount importance of the child, they will find time to organize for the study of the problems of childhood and the protection and promotion of the interests of their children.

Recovering Stolen Goods

French and Belgians Taking Effective Measures Against Receivers

Paris. — Although there have been complaints of the delay in recovering stolen machinery from Germany, the French and Belgians at Aix-la-Chapelle are getting back a good deal of it, and at the same time, taking effective measures against the receivers. Surprise visits are paid to establishments in which its presence is suspected. Wherever anything of French or Belgian origin is found, the date and manner of its acquisition are ascertained from the firm's books. When, as generally happens, the explanations are unsatisfactory, the persons implicated are arrested, and released on bail pending further enquiry—the bail taking the form of a mortgage on the factory. Much German industrial property is in this way passing into French and Belgian hands. The bail required is often as much as $100,000, and one establishment alone—that of Messrs. Wirth—has been loaded in this manner with a mortgage of $1,250,000.

"My dear," said Mr. Hawkins to his better half, "do you know you've one of the best voices in the world?"

"Indeed," said the delighted Mrs. Hawkins, with a flush of pride at the compliment, "Do you really think so?"

"I certainly do," replied the heartless husband, "otherwise it would have been worn out long ago."

Arrange for Celebration

Edmonton, Alta. — A preliminary meeting has been held here to arrange to hold a stampedede, fete, Mardi Gras, or any form of celebration, to last one week, in honor of the many men who have returned from overseas, or have left the locality to serve in his majesty's forces.

Mercantile Fleet Wiped Off Seas

Only Smaller Ships Will Be Left to Germany

Paris. — Germany's great merchant fleet will be practically swept from the seas, under the terms of the economic section of the peace treaty, the United Press learns from an authoritative source. This involved features of the treaty, which established pre-war commercial relations between Germany and the associated powers, is the first to be entirely completed. It was submitted to the "big three" and approved.

Only the smaller ships will be left to Germany. All those now held by America will remain so, being placed under the jurisdiction of congress. It is possible some confiscated ships may be chartered back to Germany if she needs them to save her commercial life, but the earnings of the ships in such event will be turned over to the allies, putting Germany in the position of doing business through foreign bottoms. This phase was taken up with the reparations commission since ships are as valuable as gold at present and may be applied to the first indemnities' payment.

War Prisoners To Be Liberated

As Germany Contributes to Work of Reconstruction

Paris. — The council of five at its meeting, La Liberté says, agreed that the German war prisoners shall be liberated after the signing of the peace treaty. The prisoners will be released gradually as Germany contributes to the work of reconstruction exacted by the treaty and in proportion to this contribution.

The newspaper says that details concerning the future status of the Kiel canal have not yet been settled, but that an agreement has been reached on the principle of internationalization.

India rubber was used for the first time as an eraser in 1770. It was, however, many years later before it was put into general use. Prior to this the crumb of bread was used for erasing purposes.

To Have New Theatre

Red Deer, Alta. — A new grand theatre is being built at a cost of approximately $30,000. It will have a seating capacity of 850, and will be available both for moving pictures and vaudeville.

The population of Oak Bay, V.I., shows an increase of about 500 since 1915.

Y.M.C.A. Notes

New Reconstruction Program

Association Needs $1,100,000 to Carry On Work

The Young Men's Christian Association, of whose invaluable offices performed during the war, continued during demobilization, and to be continued indefinitely, thereafter on behalf of returned soldiers, it is superfluous to remind anyone, needs $1,100,000 to be raised in a great Dominion campaign, May 5-9.

This campaign is promoted by the national council of Young Men's Christian Associations of Canada. The money will be spent in a new and extended program, which the "Y" plans to aid, in a carefully thought out way, the great after-war task of Canadian reconstruction. Heretofore, most of the Y.M.C.A. work has been done in the cities and towns; but in the new program there are three departments of rural work, taking in all the smaller towns, villages, hamlets and open country. In fact, one of the chief objectives of the campaign is to carry the Y.M.C.A. and its influence, which has always been exerted for good, to the hamlets and country places that have heretofore only been reached on rare occasions by the travelling secretaries.

Full financial support is needed to enable the association to prosecute with vigor and to successful issue its new program. The Y.M.C.A. is a body which necessarily and deservedly depends upon public contribution in money. None of the funds given it beyond bare and essential expenses are absorbed by the organization itself. Donations are administered in good works, ably systematized, eminently and permanently profitable, not only individually, but in the sum nationally.

The Young Men's Christian Association has striven in all its activities to be the ally of the Christian church. The essentially Christian idea of service permeates every branch of its work and ministers of all existing churches are its willing auxiliaries.

Socialists to Meet Conference

Amsterdam. — The international Socialist conference in session at Amsterdam has adopted a resolution opposing any peace in contradiction to President Wilson's 14 points. In view of the uneasiness caused by the decisions at the Paris conference, it is announced, the Socialist organization will send its executive committee to Paris to demand an interview with the council of four and will insist upon the necessity of a solution in conformity with the decisions of the Berne conference.

CLEAN THE BLOOD

Taken from Nature — The wild roots and barks that go into the composition of one of the oldest and best known blood tonics are mostly gathered by the Indians on our reservations — brought or shipped to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Buffalo, N. Y. Over fifty years ago Dr. Pierce put up an alternative tonic without the use of alcohol that soon became known all over the world.

The spring is the time of the year we should put our house in order. We're run down after a hard winter — after grippes, colds, catarrh. It's time to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, purely vegetable and free from alcohol or narcotics. It will search out impure and poisonous matter and drive it from the system. Buy it now in tablets or liquid.

It will clear the skin; eczema, pimples, rash, blotches will dry up and disappear; boils, carbuncles and other evidences of tainted blood will pass away, never to appear again.

Dr. Pierce discovered 50 years ago that Nature has provided freely for these needs of her children and that in her laboratory were the remedies. Extracts of Queen's root, Stone root, Black Cherry-bark and Bloodroot, as prepared, combined and preserved without alcohol, in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, constitute the most effective and certain tonic, alterative and tissue-rebuilding remedy ever offered to the public.

May Not Try Kaiser

Inaction on Report Prevents Its Inclusion in Treaty

Paris. — Doubt has arisen whether the responsibility of the former German emperor will be included in the peace treaty, owing to the failure of the plenary session to take action on the report of the council of four, recommending his prosecution.

Parliamentarians say that the council might still include its report in the treaty, but as the subject is one on which the plenary conference ordered the report, inaction on the report prevents its inclusion in the treaty unless the expected secret plenary session of the conference directs further action.

Large numbers will be subsequently entertained at high tea followed later by concerts and dancing. The formation of the procession will be in column of eights. One thousand wounded convalescents will be accommodated with positions close to Buckingham Palace. After the march past they will be entertained.

Aviation Grounds In Ireland Are Superb

Admitted by Experts to Be One of Best in United Kingdom

Belfast. — Ireland, by reason of its geographical position, will play an important part in the development of travelling by airship. There is now being rapidly completed at Aldergrove, County Antrim, a magnificent airfield, which will probably be one of the stations for the trans-Atlantic flight and later on the Ulster centre for the expected postal service and pleasure aerial cruises. Twelve months ago the park, which is 23 miles from Belfast by rail, was agricultural land; today it is admitted by experts, who have inspected it, to be one of the best aviation grounds in the United Kingdom.

It was only at the end of June last that a start was made with the work, and in spite of the bad weather and the lack of skilled labor, the 400 acres which constitute the park, were cleared and drained. Meanwhile the foundations for the first hangar were laid, and it has been completed for some time. It is divided into three compartments, each 150 feet wide. The foundations of a second and larger hangar were laid, but the work was suspended when the armistice was signed. The administration offices, men's rooms, and sleeping quarters for the 120 men, who will form the mechanical staff, are rapidly approaching completion. Water has been brought from Lough Neagh, a distance of two miles, and a railway 1½ miles long, and connecting with the Great Northern (Ireland) system, encircles the park. The Royal Air Force buildings are situated on another part of the grounds.

Locomotive Efficiency

British Turn Out Locomotives For Every Purpose

It sometimes happens that an invention pioneered in one country is taken up by another and developed more rapidly and successfully than in its original home. This did not occur, however, with the invention which created the modern industrial era—the steam engine. Both in the stationary form and in the locomotive British engineers have never lost the lead which the genius of Watt and Stephenson gave them. For speed and efficiency the performances of the modern British locomotives are unsurpassed. During the war British railways carried an enormously increased traffic although hundreds of locomotives were sent to France, and some even as far as Mesopotamia, for military transport purposes. In France and Flanders, moreover, hundreds of miles of light railways were constructed and equipped for locomotive and rolling stock factories in Britain. New types of engine were rapidly evolved for this unusual form of transport; and Sir Douglas Haig has testified to the remarkable efficiency of the locomotives and other equipment turned out in large quantities at short notice. The success of the British locomotive works in this phase of military engineering is due in part to the fact that for many years they have been turning out locomotives for every variety of special purpose—mines, quarries, docks, plantations, factories and so on—in every part of the world. The experience they have gained during the war will be therefore of positive assistance in solving the transport problems of countries overseas. Moreover, the war has increased their productive capacity and encouraged the adoption of means for achieving a more rapid output of locomotives with steel and other metals of the highest grade and machined within the finest limits of precision.

Russian Reds Losing Ground

Paris.—Dr. Fridtjof Nansen's plan for the neutrals to supply food to Moscow and Petrograd is apparently making little headway. As yet he has been unable to communicate with Nikolai Lenin, the Bolshevik premier of Russia, and the opposition to the plan among the Russians here as representatives of the anti-Bolshevik governments and in the French press is becoming more pronounced. The defeat of the Bolsheviks at Kiev, in the Archangel sector, on the Baltic front and along the two branches of the trans-Siberian railroad, is regarded by Nicholas Tschakovsky, head of the provisional government of northern Russia, as proof that transportation facilities are failing the Bolsheviks and that they are no longer able to shift their armies quickly enough to meet attacks.

Woman Airplane Expert

Mrs. Hewlett, Wife of Novelist, Started Factory in England

London. — Mrs. Maurice Hewlett, who was the first Englishwoman to qualify as an airplane pilot, and who knows more about airplane construction and flying generally, than, in all probability, any other member of her sex in Europe, has left for the United States on her way to New Zealand.

Mrs. Hewlett, who is the wife of the distinguished novelist, started an airplane factory in England some years before the war, which, beginning in a small way, has now developed into a huge plant. Having maintained this factory throughout the war and turned out a great number of military machines for the British government, Mrs. Hewlett is now going to help in development of aviation in New Zealand, says an interviewer, who found her just before she sailed, at her airplane factory near Brooklands, which she carries on with her French partner, M. Blondeau. She is small, slender and exceedingly alert, and was clad in a serge gown, covered by voluminous and businesslike blue overalls. In the intervals of the conversation she answered telephone inquiries as to skids, front plates and engine levers in an exceedingly matter of fact and expert fashion.

Buy British Goods

Occupied Territory Gives Firms Opportunity for Good Trade

Cologne. — British manufacturers have begun to sell goods in occupied territory. Major Lomax, representing several West Yorkshire woollen firms has arranged for the delivery of a large quantity of cloth to a large Cologne firm. He remarks, as an illustration of the eagerness of local merchants to resume trade relations with England, that he could have sold $2,500,000 worth of woollens if it had been possible to deliver the goods. The merchants prefer British textiles, and the mere announcement that the first consignment has been secured has resulted in a rush of orders. An ordinary lounge suit of durable cloth now costs at least 1,000 marks, and it is impossible to purchase even the cheapest shoddy for less than 500 marks.

Major Lomax is the first civilian to enter Cologne on behalf of British manufacturers. German business men are enquiring daily of the authorities how permission may be obtained for getting into touch with British firms. The latter undoubtedly have the preference by reason of the quality of their goods, as well as their prices, which are distinctly lower than those quoted by French and Belgian manufacturers.

The Great Relief She Found in Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mrs. Jones, of Alberta, After Two Years of Neuralgia, Headache and Rheumatism, Is Enthusiastic Over What Dodd's Kidney Pills Have Done for Her.

Clive, Alta., May 5th. (Special).—After two years of suffering from neuralgia, lumbago and rheumatism, Mrs. Jones, a highly respected resident here, is telling her friends that she owes her new lease of health to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I cannot recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills too much," Mrs. Jones states in her enthusiasm. "I would not use any other kind."

"I do not know the cause of my trouble, but I know it dragged along for two years—and in that time I suffered from cramps in my muscles, neuralgia, headache, and lumbago."

"My sleep was broken and unfreshing. I had dark circles around my eyes and I was always tired and nervous. I was low spirited, my memory was failing, my limbs were heavy and my ankles swelled."

"I took six or seven boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they did me so much good I feel like telling everybody about it."

All Mrs. Jones' troubles are symptoms of kidney trouble. If you have any two of them ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills will not help you.

HAD WEAK and FAINTING SPELLS

Those feelings of faintness, those weak, "all gone" sinking sensations, which come over some people from time to time, are warnings that must not go unheeded.

They mean an extremely weakened condition of the heart and a disordered nervous system.

When the system is in this condition there is no time for delay. One fainting spell may be recovered from—will the next? One dizzy spell may pass off, but the next may be more serious.

Those who are wise will start taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, before their case becomes deep rooted and perhaps hopeless.

They will act directly on the disordered heart and weakened nervous system and restore them to full strength and vigor.

Miss Mary McCoy, Algoma Mills, Ont., writes: "I was awfully troubled with fainting and weak spells, and I could never get any doctor's medicines to help me. One day a friend of mine was at the house when I took one of those spells, and she got me a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. That was six years ago, and from that day to this I have never had any of those spells. I would not be without your pills for any money, and can highly recommend them to any one."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50¢ a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR MAY 11—SIN AND ITS CONSEQUENCES

An outlook upon the world proves that man is not what he should be. Then, too, apart from gospel influence there is no sign of improvement. The only way of accounting for the discrepancy between what man is and what he should be is by the fall. This is the way that the Bible accounts for it. The introduction of sin is the answer.

1. The Temptation (Gen. 3:1-6).

Man possessed a free will, in the exercise of which he turned away from God and his commandment. This was done at the instance of the devil working through the serpent. He did not appear as he really was, but in disguise. The method employed was (1) finding the woman while alone; (2) insinuating doubt into her mind as to God's word and love. At his suggestion she began to believe that God did not mean what he said, and that he was unkind in placing restrictions upon them. In this the devil slandered God, even accusing the Almighty of jealousy and fraud. (3) Appeal to innocent appetite. (4) She gazed upon the fruit which God had forbidden. Looking soon began lust. (5) She lusted after that which God had forbidden. That which God has forbidden should not be looked at lest the flesh should lust for it.

2. The Fall (3:6-8).

From lusting to indulgence was a short step. This act of disobedience has brought on all the world's woe and misery. Eve not only disobeyed, but involved Adam in her sin. Aspiring to be gods, they became the slaves of sin. They came to know good and evil, but by sad experience. They knew sin without the power to free themselves from it.

3. The Consequences of the Fall (3:9-24).

1. The disturbed relationship with God (v. 9, 10). The familiar intercourse which man enjoyed with the Almighty was marred and broken by sin. Sin makes life intolerable in the divine presence. Adam and Eve not only hid from God's presence, but Adam began to make excuses and even laid the blame on God.

2. The serpent was degraded and henceforth became a type of sin and Satan (v. 14; cf. Num. 21:9; John 3:14; Rev. 12:9). This doom was pronounced without trial. In the case of man it was not so.

3. The undying enmity between the two seeds (v. 15; cf. John 8:40-45; Matt. 23:33). The antagonism thus begun reached its climax in the crucifixion of Christ. Satan's seed has been ever since endeavoring to destroy the Lord's work and his workers.

4. The ultimate victory of the woman's seed (v. 15). Satan harassed the woman's seed; bruised his heel, but finally the stroke was made which crushed the serpent's head (John 12:31; Heb. 2:14; 1 John 3:8). This was the first gleam of the glorious light of the gospel of Christ. The victory was marvelous, but the cost was infinite (Isa. 53; 2 Cor. 5:21).

5. Judgment upon the woman (v. 16). This relates to her as a wife and mother; also to her subordination to man. This is God's decree, and all efforts of freeing one's self from it are fighting against God.

6. Man's new relationship to the earth (v. 17-19). The earth was cursed on his account. Because of the rank growth of thorns and thistles man must make an increased effort to exist. Man with his sinful nature would be in a bad state without the necessity of toil (Rom. 8:19-22).

7. Death (v. 19). This includes physical and spiritual death—both the result of sin.

8. Expulsion from the garden (v. 24). This was an act of great mercy. To have partaken of the tree of life and live forever in a sinful state would have been intolerable.

Gaining Weight Feeling Fine

Was All Run Down, Tired and Exhausted Before Beginning the Use of the Great Food Cure

Sexsmith, Alta., May 13.—This is the cheering sort of letter that comes from people who have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. This treatment forms new, rich blood and rich blood builds up the depleted nerve cells until the thrill of new life and energy is felt in every organ and member of the human body.

Because Mr. Edwards was also having some trouble with the liver and kidneys he also used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to awaken the action of these filtering organs. The combined use of these medicines usually produces most excellent results, even in the most complicated cases.

Mr. Stephen D. Edwards, Sexsmith, Alta., writes:

"My nervous system was all run down, and I also suffered with my liver and kidneys. I could not sleep at night, and got up in the morning feeling tired and unrefreshed. I used to feel as if I wanted to die. In reading Dr. Chase's Almanac I noticed the number of letters from people who had been benefited by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills, so I commenced using this combined treatment. It has done me a great deal of good, for I can now sleep well and do not have that horrid feeling I used to have in the mornings. I am gaining in weight and feel much better generally."

Post War Prices

Calgary Herald:

Arrangements have been completed for the summer courses for returned soldiers. This summer session will open at the University of Alberta, Edmonton, on May 19th next, and will continue until September 12th. The purpose of this summer school is to furnish assistance to men whose studies have been interrupted by the war that too much time may not be lost in getting into regular classes again. In some cases, men who had left school before enlistment are anxious to resume their studies. Provision will be made for these men also. Returned men everywhere are invited to take advantage of this school.

The school will be organized to give as far as possible individual instruction. Thus a man may enter with almost any attainment and make as rapid progress as he is capable of. Any returned man who is interested in improving his education with the idea of continuing in some institution in the fall should write the Department of Education, Edmonton, at once.

Returned men only will be admitted to these courses. The University Dormitories and boarding facilities will be available for men who may attend. A rate similar to that prevailing during the regular session will be allowed, namely thirty dollars per month for both room and board.

The Department of Education will furnish tuition in these courses free. The session will close in time for those qualified to enter the Normal School or proceed with University work. All likely to attend should advise the department at once that all courses required may be included in the plans.

Summer School For Soldiers

People who looked for a speedy drop in commodity prices following the announcement of the armistice have, thus far, looked in vain; and there is no indication that their prognostications will ever be fulfilled. Everything seems to be against any sudden slump in commodity values, and it is probably as well that it is so. It is no index of prosperity when either food products or manufactured articles are purchasable at bargain counter figures; usually the contrary. Ever since the signing of the armistice prices have been fluctuating in all Allied countries. Sometimes they advanced, and again they declined, and this sort of thing has been going on steadily and will continue more or less noticeably until a new price level approximating standard has been reached. It is the opinion of experts in the United States that for that country a standard has already been reached, and that there will be no further appreciable decreases or increases for some considerable time to come. Conditions are not so settled in Canada.

These price fluctuations were to have been anticipated immediately following the war. They represent the uncertainty of the industrial situation and our efforts to adjust ourselves to post-war conditions. The process is by no means easy, particularly in view of the fact that, thus far, political and economic conditions in practically all countries of the world are more or less chaotic. Nor will there be any certainty until the peace is signed and the nations have had time to study and adjust themselves to the new state of affairs ushered in by the peace pact and formation of the league of nations. Thus we are likely to have a return to the new normal by easy stages. Prices today, generally speaking, are lower than they were in war time, and they will probably remain as they are for some months. After we adjust ourselves to the new peace regime, there will, no doubt, be more fluctuations, and another price standard set, and there we shall probably remain indefinitely. What we may take as a certainty is that here, as in other directions, things will never again be just the same. In the better world, following the war, it will likely cost us more to live, but the increased cost will be worth while, for we shall be living under better conditions, socially and industrially.

BUY A N IRRIGATED FARM FROM THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY BECAUSE:

Irrigation makes the farmer independent of rainfall, and insures good crops, not occasionally, but every year.

Irrigation makes possible the successful culture of alfalfa, the king of fodders, which insures good returns in dairying and mixed farming.

Irrigation means intensive farming and close settlement with all the advantages of a densely populated agricultural community.

Irrigation in the Canadian Pacific Railway Irrigation Block is no longer an experiment, the years that it has been tried having absolutely demonstrated its success wherever in intelligently applied.

This is the most liberal offer of irrigated farm land on record. For full particulars apply to

ALLAN CAMERON, Gen. Supt. of Lands

Canadian Pacific Railway, Dept. of Natural Resources, 928 1st. St. E. CALGARY, ALBERTA

You can buy irrigated land from the Canadian Pacific Railway at prices up to $50 per acre, with 20 years to pay and the privilege of a loan of $2,000 for improvements

(6% interest): no principle after first payment until end of fourth year, reduced interest if settlement conditions are complied and no water rental for first year. Contract can be paid off before maturity if desired.

Sending Money Away?

Nothing safer than a Union Bank money order or draft for making remittances. No fuss, no bother, and only sufficient formality to ensure your money safely reaching the party for whom it is intended.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Who can estimate accurately the value of the big storm for this year's crops.

Mr. Farmer, why not win that $80-garden prize? It's up to you to get busy.

The enthusiasm now shown in our Agricultural Association makes it evident this year's fair will be the best yet held in Gleichen—and that means a great deal.

Keep talking about our Exhibition on August 15 and 16.

J. A. McArthur is the happiest farmer in the country at present and The Call only got wise to the reason a few days ago. It's a son and heir, born in Calgary, April 23. Mother and child are doing fine, Jack says.

A young lady of Gleichen sized up the worth of advertising wisely recently. She said, "No, I am not going to that dance. I don't think it will amount to much. The bills are small and it is not advertised in the paper very much. That is the way to judge, they say".

A new daily newspaper is to be published in Calgary to be called the Evening News to support the aims of Moderation League. Considering the fate of the late News-Telegram the Moderation League will certainly have an excellent opportunity to exemplify its aims.

An exchange complains that too many country points, societies and churches ask for free advertising of dances, bazaars and entertainments of many kinds and do not reciprocate by sending in news of these events when they take place. This exchange points out the newspaper brings the crowd together, the most essential part towards success, and frequently receives no cash, while hall rent, light and musicians are cheerfully paid. Surely then it is only fair a report of each event is due the paper and those interested the affairs financially and socially.

CHEAP SANDWICHES

If you are going to specialize in savory sandwiches of all shapes, sizes, and conditions, follow these tips and you will delight your guests, and save your own pocket.

Sardine Sandwiches.—Turn a small tin of sardines into a basin, beat smooth with a fork, adding enough vinegar to make a paste, season the whole with pepper and salt, and spread on thin bread and butter. A tablespoonful of fine breadcrumbs may be added to make the sardines go farther.

Smoked Haddock Sandwich.—Boil a dried haddock till tender, remove all bones, chop finely, season with salt and pepper, and spread on rather thick bread and butter. This is a little known sandwich.

Salmon Sandwich.—These are liked by all. Turn a small tin of salmon into a basin, beat well with a fork, add a large teaspoonful of breadcrumbs, one teaspoonful of made mustard, pepper and salt to taste, and beat well together, adding enough vinegar to make into a smooth paste. Spread on thin bread and butter, and press well together.

Savory Sandwich.—Grate about three ounces of cheddar cheese. Beat it up well with two ounces of fresh butter, a teaspoonful of made mustard, and about a teaspoonful of good vinegar—a little Tarragon vinegar will greatly improve it. Add cayenne pepper and salt to taste, and spread on thin bread. Men like this.

Chestnut Sandwich.—Boil as many chestnuts as required till quite tender. Peel, and mash them up with a fork, add a little cream to make into a smooth paste. Spread on thin bread and butter.

Club Sandwich.—A small tin of bloater paste and some mustard and cream make cheap, tasty tit-bits. Spread the paste on the bread and butter, lay on thinly the mustard and cream, and press well together.

Note.—Order your sandwich bread a couple of days before you need it. Slightly warm your butter before using—for economy's sake. And, for pleasing variety, buy at any bazaar some sandwich cutters—heart-shaped, triangular and circular.

EMPLOYMENT AND WAGES

"Made-in-Canada" Provides Work For Working People

The "Made-in-Canada" movement to-day means more than business or profit for the Canadian manufacturer. It means employment for Canadian workpeople, who will spend their wages over the counters of Canadian stores to the advantage of Canadian merchants and Canadian business generally. It means traffic, both freight and passenger, for our railways, which again contributes to increased activity in all fields of Canadian commercial enterprise. It means a home market with good prices for what the farmer has to sell to the Canadian workman and his family. Ask the farmers around Winnipeg or Toronto, or Montreal, or Brantford what they think about this splendid market right at their doors.

Dr. Samuel Johnson defined patriotism as "the last refuge of a scoundrel." The man who gets his income from this country in a time of war and spends a good share of it in another is the last kind of scoundrel that could be considered a patriot.

DISLOYAL SIKHS BALKED

Native Loyalty Too Much For Returned Revolutionaries

Returning from the Viceroyship, Lord Hardinge had something to say of the aftermath of Canada's troubles with certain Hindus. He narrated that in the winter of 1914-15 about 7,000 Sikhs returned to India from the western part of the United States and Canada. They were imbued with revolutionary ideas and were doubtless under the impression that the whole country was ready to rise. They made their way up country and arrived in the Punjab. They committed all sorts of excesses, not stopping at murder. This was in February, 1915.

Not only did they fail to subvert the population, but when the Government took in hand the task of suppressing disorders and hunting down the perpetrators, it was invariably assisted by Sikh peasants, who, in numberless cases, themselves seized and handed over the guilty parties to the authorities in the Punjab. These returned Sikhs were undoubtedly parties to a conspiracy which had for its object to cause a general rising and seize in the first instance, Ferozepore Arsenal. It was through the unfailing loyalty of the native population to the British Rajah that the conspiracy came to naught.

CHILDREN'S SWEETS

Prosperity of English Shops is Due to the War

"We'll send the boy out some sweets this week." In that homely phrase lies the secret of the prosperity of thousands of sweet shops during the war. Jacks and Tommies on service will cheerfully own to possessing quite a good sized sweet tooth, and the folk at home take excellent care not to forget it. "Another reason why we have been extra busy this year," smilingly admits one cheerful proprietor of a sweetshop in a populous neighborhood, "is that the youngsters have had more money to spend. The soldiers give it to them for one thing, and then their mothers have had more, and consequently give them more. Women, of course, like sweets, and when they come in to buy something for their sons and husbands at the front, they spend a little for themselves, or give an extra penny to Tommy the Younger, who has been sharp enough to accompany his mother."

"Then, too, with the little extra prosperity in the home, the youngsters have had their 'Saturday pennies' and pennies," as they call them, doubled, and sometimes trebled. Extravagant! Well, not exactly. Sugar is good for kiddies, and there are not many sweets nowadays which are not made of good stuff."

What are the favorite sweets of youngsters? The opinions of a dozen shopkeepers in a neighborhood where the children's trade is worth having, all concur. The toffees and caramels hold first place in the affection of the boys and girls. Perhaps it is because the glutinous joys of both these sweets are very enduring. Good caramel and milk caramel have a rubber-like resistance to the action of the teeth that endears them greatly to the heart of the small boy, whose pence are few. His youthful precocity gives him to understand that the way to get on is to have something that goes a long way for his money. So he looks a little bit askance, say, at a satin-like cushion of sweetmeat, filled with delicious fruit juice. He will agree that it is delectable, but it scrunches very rapidly beneath his sharp, white teeth, and is gone in a second.

Does a Farmer Need a Truck?

THE farmer with a Ford Truck practically lives next door to the market.

He has a choice of markets. He becomes more independent.

He can market his goods when and where he pleases.

He sells his crop to the very best advantage.

And his hauling costs him less in labor and money.

It is not only cheaper to haul with a Ford Truck than with a team and wagon, it is quicker, it is easier work.

Consider the time and labor the farmer can save with a Ford Truck. With a team the trip to town takes the better part of a day.

A Ford Truck makes the same trip in two or three hours.

When labor is so scarce, what farmer can afford to waste day after day of his valuable time?

Ford Trucks Complete with Body and Enclosed Cab

Ford One-Ton Trucks are now supplied, if desired, with standard truck bodies in two types, the Stake Body and the Express Body.

In both standard bodies the cab may be supplied with or without doors as desired.

See these complete Ford Trucks. Consider the matter from every angle; the cost of feeding horses against the cost of running a Ford Truck; the time you lose on the road; the money you lose by being so far from the best markets. There is only one conclusion you can come to. You will have a Ford Truck.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The big storm prophets who have been arranging dates since last fall, should now be happy.

The farmer who gets that $80.00 for his garden will have something else worth being proud of—some reputation.

Fence your land. The Revelstoke Sawmill Co., Ltd., has an exceptionally fine stock of cedar fence posts and willows. Prices right. 4

In addition to supplying the requirements of Canadian farmers and fillings requests for seed wheat from France and Australia. The Dominion Seed Purchasing Commission is now being asked to furnish Montana farmers with seed. In accordance with an urgent request fifty thousand bushels of wheat seed is being shipped to various points in Montana.

Some excellent prices were realized on a number of Short-horn grade steers, rising two years, that were shipped into Calgary by the Animal Industry branch of the C.P.R. Department of Natural Resources. In fact they were the top prices touched this year for this particular class, and G. H. Hutton, the head of the department is being congratulated that the C.P.R. are maintaining their reputation in producing such excellent stock.

Seventeen of the animals were sold by Wade & Jack to the Calgary Abattoir at the average price of $15.65 per 100 lbs. These realized $3,087.74. An equal number were sold by the United Grain Growers to the Canadian Swift Co. at $15.75. These turned the scales at 18,980 pounds, and brought $2,965.35. The average price for the lot was $178.15 per head.

The future of the "Y" in the estimation of many of the soldiers, is proven by many incidents. An officer declared once before the war; from now on he was a strong supporter. His first real touch of it came at Vimy Ridge.

In a Belgian town the other day a Canadian came to a "Y" officer, and put into words the thing that is troubling a soldier about to return to Canada.

"My country home," he said, "is as dead as this place. Why can't you come out and build a hut like this, with a Y.M.C.A. program, and make life worth living for us? I don't believe I can stick it in that quiet place in old Canada again."

It is precisely such a program in the quiet places beyond the cities that is the ambition, the hope, of the Y.M.C.A. in its coming campaign for funds. If a million dollars will make these places "worth living in," it is the best investment Canada ever made.

In a demonstration at Martinsville this week in which nine machines took part, the Moline Universal finished its lead of one and one-third acres five minutes ahead of its nearest competitor and each tractor was pulling three plows instead of two as for us. The official time showed that it plowed an acre in fifty and one-half minutes, at a cost of fifty-six cents per acre for fuel. GENERAL SUPPLIES LIMITED, CALGARY, ALTA. 7

Help the Y.M.C.A. Finish its Work For Soldiers

Help the "Y" Construct the Manhood that will Re-construct Canada

ALL the world now knows that the Red Triangle of the Y.M.C.A. was the "Sign of Friendship" to thousands of your brothers, sons, nephews, cousins and neighbours' boys in the last four and a half years. Wherever the Canadian Soldiers went, the "Good old 'Y'" went too. And now it is coming back home with them!

For the support which has made possible the war work of the Y.M.C.A. we thank you. Your money has been well expended. We have rendered full account.

We ask now your continued sympathy and support for Red Triangle Service for our Soldiers during demobilization, and for Y.M.C.A. work for Canada generally during the Reconstruction period. The Annual Red Triangle campaign will be held throughout Canada May 5th to 9th, 1919. The objective is $1,100,000.

For Our Men Returning

For the soldiers and their dependents, returning from Overseas, we have provided as follows:—

1. A Red Triangle man on board every ship when it leaves Great Britain, with a full equipment of games, gramophones and records, magic lantern, literature and writing materials. Where possible, also a piano or an organ. Lectures, concerts, sing songs, instruction re Government repatriation plans, and Sunday Services.

2. Red Triangle comforts and facilities for the men on arrival at Halifax, St. John, Quebec and Montreal, including coffee stalls, with free drinks, free canteens, cigarettes, candies, etc.

3. Red Triangle men on every troop train to provide regularly free drinks, canteens and cigarettes, organize games and sing songs, and furnish information.

4. Red Triangle free canteen service, information bureau, etc., at each of the 22 Dispersal centres in Canada.

5. Red Triangle Clubs in the principal cities of Canada in the shape of large Y.M.C.A. hostels to furnish bed and board at low rates and to be a rendezvous for soldiers.

6. Seventy-five Secretaries to superintend Red Triangle service in Military Hospitals, Camps and Barracks throughout Canada.

7. Tickets entitling soldiers to full Y.M.C.A. privileges for six months at any local Y.M.C.A. furnished.

In addition to our work for the returning soldiers, we have to maintain the Red Triangle service to the full for the soldiers in Siberia, as well as the work of special secretaries in Northern Russia, Palestine and Poland.

For Canada's Manhood

The Reconstruction program of the Y. M. C. A. includes the following vitally important developments:—

1. An increased service to 300,000 teen-age boys in the Dominion—the development of Canadian Standard Efficiency training; Bible Study groups; summer camps; conferences; service for High School boys, for working boys, in the towns and cities; for boys on the farm and for boys everywhere, who have lacked opportunity for mental, moral, physical or social development.

2. Inauguration of Y.M.C.A. work in the country, and the smaller towns and villages lacking Association buildings and equipment, on a plan of county organizations. This will include the establishment of Red Triangle centres for social, recreational and educational work among boys and men, in co-operation with the churches.

3. The promotion of Y.M.C.A. work among Canada's army of workers in industrial plants, both in Y.M.C.A. buildings and in the factory buildings, organizing the industrial workers of our cities by meetings, entertainments, games and sports.

4. The establishment of the Red Triangle in isolated districts where lumbermen, miners and other workers hold the front trenches of industry.

5. Besides these main fields of increased activity for 1919, we have to provide for enlarged work among railway men, college students and for our campaign to encourage physical and sex education. Under all our work we place the fundamental foundation of manly Christianity.

The Y.M.C.A. will keep its chain of Service unbroken till the end.

The Future of the Small Town

Much is said and written these days about the small village or town and its future. In particular, attention is being devoted to present and future prospects of the town and village retail merchant in the face of the increasing competition afforded by the large retail houses in big cities. Many of these local merchants take a gloomy view, and are somewhat inclined to blame the farmers for lack of loyalty to those who, they claim, have extended credit and carried them over bad years, who buy their butter and eggs, and are ever ready to render them small services, whereas the city houses insist on cash in advance and render no local service to them whatever.

The future of the small town or village is inseparable from the prosperity of their retail merchants. If the retail merchant goes, it will not be long before the doctor, lawyer, banker, newspaper, hotelman, and others follow suit, and with the passing of the "local" centre the farmer would quickly discover he had sustained a loss, the value of which he had not fully appreciated until too late.

Like every other matter, there are two sides to this question, and it is in the interests of all that both sides should be studied. The local town and the local merchant have certain responsibilities towards the farmers of their district, and the farmers have a certain duty towards these towns. An effort should be made to determine what these duties are and to discharge them.

First of all, the town should be made a real community centre and the necessary facilities provided to make it an attractive meeting place for the farmers of the surrounding district and their wives and families. Too frequently, it is to be feared, farmers are rather given the impression that all the town cares about them is the money they have to spend. On the other hand, the farmer is apt to compare the lower prices quoted by the city houses with the local merchant's prices without giving heed to anything else.

When the farmer buys from a city house he is compelled to pay cash in advance, nor has he the privilege of first inspecting the goods he purchases. When he buys from the local town merchant he thoroughly examines the goods in advance of purchase, and frequently buys on credit, and would even resent being asked to pay cash. Yet it is a well known fact that goods cannot be sold as cheaply on credit as for cash.

The local merchant is immediately at hand for every small purchase and in all emergencies; the city house is far away. The average farmer expects, and receives, accommodation from the local merchant when he needs it, and relies on him to take certain of his produce in exchange for goods, but he would never think of asking the city house for similar accommodation and assistance, and would not get it if he did ask for it.

This situation has existed for years, yet the farmer is educated to cash payment—to the city houses. Why, therefore, should the local merchant not adopt the same method, and, as one writer puts it, say: "Mr. Farmer, I've been on this spot serving you for years. I've given you many favors. But you make your most important purchases by mail—pay cash in advance. Now, surely, it is only fair that you pay me cash in advance also for the small purchases you now make here. Every time I pay cash the jobber gives me a discount of 2 to 5 per cent. Each year he allows me also 9 per cent. for prepayment of my bills. You pay me cash and I'll turn this advantage over to you. Both of us will be better off." And the discrepancy between city house prices and those of the local merchant would largely disappear.

The local town or village should do its part. It should identify itself more with the lives of the farmers upon whose trade its exists. It should provide an attractive rest room where the farmer's wife and babies can gather out of the cold, or wet, or hot sun for the hour or two they are in town. It should be equipped so that the mother can care for the children and tidy up and refresh herself after a long drive in the wind and dust, or wet and cold. It should have facilities where she can make a cup of tea or coffee, and some books or magazines to read. Farmers and their families should be welcomed and encouraged to take an active part in the social life of the town. In a word, the farmers and their families should be made to feel that they are welcome for themselves and quite apart from the money they have to spend.

The community aspect of the problem of the small town is easily the most important aspect. Were the city houses called upon to support every public enterprise in all the towns in which they sell goods as all the retailers do, and are expected to do, a considerable hole would be made in their profits, and their increased overhead expenses would result in increased selling prices. What the local merchant does for his community in these days should not be overlooked.

The more the city house is patronized, the more difficult it will be to build up a bright, attractive, prosperous local community; the more the town merchants are patronized, the better service they will be able to render, the greater variety and volume of stocks they can carry, the closer they can make their prices because the overhead charges of conducting the store would be less in proportion to the volume of business done.

This is an age of co-operation, and farmer and town merchant should make it a practice to loyally co-operate the one with the other. Both have everything to gain and nothing to lose by such action.

Are Averse to Patrolling Atlantic

London. — British naval circles do not favor patrolling the Atlantic in connection with the trans-Atlantic flight, owing to the low visibility of the aircraft at sea, and the possibility of their deviating from their course by drifting. It is regarded as much more practicable to hold vessels in Irish and other harbors in readiness for eventualities, especially as merchantmen will be in close proximity to the proposed aircraft route.

Teaching Certificates For Soldiers

Special Privileges Granted to Returned Men in Saskatchewan

In order to enable soldiers returning to civilian life to enter upon a fairly remunerative line of work, even though it may be only for a temporary period, the minister of education announces that any of the Saskatchewan soldiers who wish to engage in teaching will be permitted to do so provided they have satisfactory academic standing. Such soldiers holding at least third class diplomas or equivalent standing will, upon submitting a certificate of honorable discharge, be granted provisional certificates valid in any rural school in the province for a year. Furthermore, if the inspector's report on their work in the school room is satisfactory, such soldiers will be granted permanent teaching certificates without being required to attend the provincial Normal school.

As has already been announced, any Saskatchewan teacher who holds a teacher's certificate of the first, second or third class, will, upon submitting to the department his certificate of honorable discharge, be granted a permanent certificate of the same class.

No registration fee will be charged in any case, and those who have already paid the customary fee will have the same remitted.

Accepted Canadian Amendment

Representatives Urged Their Views With Vigor Before Commission

Paris. — The new draft of the covenant is generally regarded as a great improvement upon that which was first presented. It is believed that the Canadian delegates pressed strongly for certain amendments, some of which are embodied in the new draft, while others were not accepted. The Canadian representatives urged their views with vigor both before the commission and at meetings of the British delegation. Their belief, however, is that the one great advantage to accrue from the constitution of the league is that it will bring to the world first hand discussions of world affairs. Through this understanding goodwill and co-operation in maintaining world peace will naturally follow.

Bolshevik Flotilla Captured

Helsingfors. — The newspapers report that Finnish volunteers captured the town of Lotinapolto, on the White sea. The town is an important strategic point, being the junction of numerous roads and the Murmansk coast, which is now closed to the Bolsheviks. It is assumed that the Bolshevik torpedo boat flotilla at Lotinapolto was unable to escape owing to the ice.

An Oil That Is Priced Everywhere.
—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil was put upon the market without any flourish over thirty years ago. There is nothing equal to it.

Hoist German Flag

Colors Raised by Civilians in Defiance of Allies

Coblentz. — Enthusiasm by prospects of peace and newspaper reports that the German peace delegates had passed Cologne en route to Versailles, five Coblentz civilians hoisted German flags. The colors fluttered from their staffs only a short while, all having been taken down by the military police, excepting in one case, almost as soon as they appeared. A crowd of 200 soldiers on leave assembled in the street near a downtown building where a large German flag was flying, but a military policeman relieved the situation by hauling down the flag himself.

May Manufacture Farm Machinery

Winnipeg, Man. — Delegates to the annual provincial convention of the Great War Veterans' association at Moose Jaw will be asked to consider a proposal to form a company for the manufacture of farm machinery. ### Aeroplanes for Universities

Professors in Favor of Adding Aeroplaning to Curriculum

London, Ont. — Aeroplanes may become a part of the paraphernalia of universities in the near future. London's university, Western, has been given an aeroplane which will be kept at the university, and now word has been received that the British war mission in the United States has shipped to the university a Le Rhone 9-cycle, 110 horsepower rotary engine. The university will doubtless be proud to own it, as it was the power plant of one of the famous Briscoe-Sopwith machines which enabled the allies to maintain the supremacy of the air in 1916 and 1917. Professors of the university are enthusiastically in favor of adding aeroplaning to the curriculum of the college.

DISEASE COMES THROUGH THE BLOOD

To Cure Common Ailments the Blood Must Be Made Rich and Red

Nearly all the common diseases that afflict mankind are caused by bad blood—weak, watery blood poisoned by impurities. Bad blood is the cause of headaches and backaches, lumbago and rheumatism, debility and indigestion, neuritis, sciatica and other nerve troubles. It is bad blood that causes disfiguring skin diseases like eczema, and salt rheum, pimples and eruptions. The severity of the trouble indicates how impure the blood is, and it goes always from bad to worse unless steps are promptly taken to enrich and purify the blood. There is no use trying a different medicine for each disease, for they all come through the one trouble—bad blood. To cure any of these troubles you must get right down to the root of the trouble in the blood. That is just what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do. They make new, rich, red blood. They simply purify and enrich the blood, and the disease disappears. That is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured thousands of cases after other medicines had failed. Here is proof of the power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to cure Mrs. M. Stills, who resides near the town of Napanee, says: "I cannot praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills too highly. I was very much run down in health, suffered from frequent spells of indigestion, biliousness, and sick headache. I had an almost constant pain in my head, and my housework was a course of dread. In fact I felt so miserable that life held but little enjoyment. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which I did, and the result was simply marvellous, and can best be summed up by saying that they made me feel like a new woman, and fully restored my health. I would advise every woman and girl who has poor blood, or is run down in health to give these wonderful pills a trial. I am never without them in the house."

At the first sign that the blood is out of order take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and note the speedy improvement they make in the appetite, health and spirits. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Bombardment Causes Fire

Hundreds of Houses Burned in Town of Narva

Copenhagen. — A dispatch from Reval, Russia, says that there has been a big fire in the town of Narva, 81 miles southwest of Petrograd. The conflagration was started by a bombardment of the town by the Bolsheviks. Hundreds of houses were burned, and 5,000 persons are homeless. Narva which lies near the gulf of Finland on the Narova river, has a population of some 20,000. There are numerous textiles works in the town, and there is a considerable trade in fish. The principal buildings are the cathedral, the old castle and the town hall.

Paris. — Final decision on the disposition of Danzig makes that port a free city under the league of nations. The city is granted its independence and complete autonomy in local affairs. Poland and Germany are given freedom of passage across the Polish corridor to the city.

Strassburg. — The census taken here under the direction of the French authorities has been completed and shows that fifty-nine per cent of the population is Alsatian, that ten per cent, were born of German-Alsatian parentage, and that twenty-eight per cent, are Germans. The remaining three per cent, of inhabitants belong to different nationalities.

War Munitions Stolen

Daring Raid at Collinstown Causes Grave Apprehension

Dublin. — The audacity of the raid for arms at Collinstown, a drama has aroused public opinion to the gravity of the situation here. None of the numerous events which have occurred throughout the country in the last few months has brought home with such force the danger which threatens. This is probably due to the fact that the raid took place within an hour's walk of the city and also to the importance of the capture.

Seventy or eighty rifles with adequate ammunition in the hands of men of the daring displayed by those who entered the airfield and gagged the guards, cannot fail to make a deep impression. Obviously these men did not take the risk for nothing, and it requires little imagination to conjure up what they may do with the weapons.

The Irish Times points out that the raid was an even more audacious defiance of the law than any of the premonitory symptoms of the 1916 rebellion. It is recalled that recently men wearing the King's uniform have been murdered, that quantities of explosives have been seized in various parts of the country, that many raids for arms have taken place with considerable success, and that in no instance has anyone been made amenable. These facts, to which have now been added the daring exploit at Collinstown, are ominous in the extreme.

Firing at Aeroplanes Forbidden

Berne. — Aeroplanes of the Hoffmann government forces flying over Munich, have been fired on repeatedly by the communists with the result that thirteen civilians have been killed and 100 wounded.

The communist government, the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin says, in consequence has forbidden any more firing at the aeroplanes. This measure is said to have been taken, however, with a view to saving ammunition.

Sickly Women Given Strength, Vigor, Spirits

Many of the woes of womanhood, are due to kidney weakness. At first the back aches. Then pains gather around the hips and lodge right in the small of the back.

To stoop or bend seems impossible. Headaches are constant. Unhappy existence. No pleasure in life when the body is overloaded with poisons that the sick kidneys can't filter out.

Bright's disease is the next stage, but it can be prevented by using Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butterum. They cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently.

When the kidneys work properly pure blood is formed.

This means "nourishment" and strength for the whole body. Back-aches and dragging pains are forgotten. Irregularities disappear, vital energy is restored, and happy, robust health is once more established.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills for women's ills is the slogan of thousands today.

Enormous benefit in many ways follow their use, and no woman or girl can use medicine that will do their general health more good. For the sake of your kidneys, for the sake of your liver, for the advancement of your general well-being, you can't improve on Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c per box.

Troops Leave Fiume

Geneva. — The battalion of British troops which occupied Fiume with the Italians after the armistice, left Fiume when the Italian delegates to the Peace conference left Paris, according to advices from Agram, capital of Croatia and Slavonia.

The reason for this action by the British is reported to be a desire to avoid friction with the Italian troops. The despatch adds that the Italians are reinforcing their troops in central Istria.

It Works! Try It

Tells how to loosen a sore, tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezone, the other discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

Ask at any pharmacy for a quarter ounce of freezone, which will cost very little, but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

GIRLS! LEMON JUICE IS A SKIN WHITENER

How to make a creamy beauty lotion for a few cents.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands.

Greeks Are Indignant

Italians Agitating for Italian Protectorate Over Albania

Saloniki. — The Italian government has closed all the Greek schools at Argyrocastro, in north Epyros, and has sent 100 Italian school teachers there, according to information received by the Hellas, a Greek newspaper. The Italians are also declared to be stirring up religious hatred by playing off the moslems against the Christians. The Italians are agitating for an Italian protectorate over Albania.

Except for a few Albanians and moslems, the majority of the population of northern Epyros, the paper adds, are indignant over the attitude of the Italians and demand that the Italian troops in that region be withdrawn.

First Step Towards Signing of Peace

Versailles. — In a session beginning at 3.10 o'clock and lasting barely five minutes, the German plenipotentiaries to the peace congress presented their credentials.

It was the first step in the peace negotiations.

The German credentials were presented to representatives of the allies and the United States.

Pale and almost fainting from emotion, Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the German secretary and head of the peace delegation, sat through what evidently was one of the bitterest moments of his life. He was barely able to sustain himself on his feet through the brief ceremony, and reach the waiting automobile, which had brought him to the gathering.

The meeting took place in the room of the Trianon Hotel, previously used for the sessions of the supreme military council. Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, on entering, was accompanied by Herr Landsberg, Professor Schuecking, and two secretaries, and waiting for him the allied plenipotentiaries were grouped around Jules Cambon, former French ambassador at Berlin, who is chairman of the commission. Other members of the allied party included Lord Harding, Great Britain; Ambassador Matsui, Japan; and Henry White of the United States.

M. Cambon immediately addressed Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, stating that he was chairman of the commission entrusted by the allied powers to receive and examine the credentials of the German delegates as the first step in a conference which, it was expected, would lead to peace. "Here are ours," continued M. Cambon, extending, as he spoke, the formal credentials of the allied commission as plenipotentiaries to the meeting. Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau surrendered the German credentials with even less of a formal address, his emotion being too great to enable him to deliver an extended discourse.

After these brief ceremonies, the Germans turned and left the hall, walking a few steps to the cars in waiting. They were followed immediately by the allied plenipotentiaries. The whole ceremony was over by 2.30 o'clock. The allied delegates then rode to the Chateau to inspect the Hall of Mirrors, where the treaty will be signed and eventually returned to the hotel for tea.

Chinese Being Deported

Victoria. — The record for deportation of Chinese from this port to China has been beaten. On the steamer Canada Maru 36 Chinese were deported to their native land after they had failed to enter Canada as would-be college students. Examination of the Orientals by the immigration officials has shown them unfit to enter colleges here. They appealed to Ottawa, but officials there refused to intervene.

The shower that spoils a woman's Easter hat is a rain of terror.

Hope That Italy May Be Pacified

Paris. — There is a slight rift in the Italian cloud, which gives hope of the clearing of the difficulties that have arisen in the peace conference over the Adriatic problem. Overtures for the resumption of relations have not come thus far from either direction, but there are intimations from Rome that overtures from Paris would not be unacceptable and would receive every attention.

The prevailing sentiment among the delegates is against soliciting a return of the Italian plenipotentiaries and it was at first believed that President Wilson shared this opinion.

Those nearest the president, however, assert that if Italy is disposed to relinquish Fiume and accept the compromise the president suggested, he could doubtless, in the interest of harmony, make such friendly suggestions as would permit the resumption of negotiations by the Italians without any loss of dignity or self-esteem. These personal susceptibilities are felt to be more of an obstacle at present than the territorial merits of the case.

Would Not Accept Bribes

Budapest. — Six hundred arrests have been made by the Soviet authorities, virtually every financier, publisher, editor, writer, manufacturer, and ex-minister of Hungary, who could be reached, being thrown into prison. More than thirty editors and newspaper owners, as well as a larger number of reporters have been taken into custody, it is alleged, because they have refused to accept bribes to champion the Soviet cause.

Says Poles Plan Advance on Germany

Impossible for Government to Guarantee That Armistice Will Be Maintained

Berlin. — Matthias Erzberger, chief of the German armistice delegation, in a note to Marshal Foch, made public in Berlin, says that Germany has reliable information that the Poles are planning in the next few days, an advance with large forces against German territory in Posen and upper Silesia. He adds that, therefore, it is impossible for the German government to guarantee that the armistice between Germany and Poland will be maintained if the Poles attack Germans there.

After such an attack, the German government could not permit the further passage through Germany from France of the Polish troops of Gen. Haller.

To Enforce Five Day Week. Seattle. — Official announcement that a five day week would be enforced commencing May 3 was made by the building trades council, representing approximately 6,000 workers. No work will be done on Saturday and Sunday. The short week also will be put into effect in Tacoma and other northwest cities soon, it was said.

Want Wilson Back. St. Louis. — The chamber of commerce of the United States, representing half a million business men, unanimously adopted a resolution urging the immediate return to this country of President Wilson and an extraordinary session of congress to enact legislation necessary "to safeguard our social and business structure."

Belgians Ask Financial Aid. Paris. — The Belgians have asked the council of three for a first advance of two billion francs on their share of German indemnity, according to French circles, and it appears that they have received definite and satisfactory assurances. It is reported that there may be a public plenary session of the conference to discuss the responsibility articles of the treaty.

British Laborites Support Wilson

Message Sent to Socialists of Italy Asking Support

Rome. — A message from the British labor party to the Italian Intransigent Socialists urging them to uphold President Wilson's fourteen points has been received.

Thirteen intransigent Socialist deputies, representing their group, met in the chamber to discuss what attitude should be adopted regarding the situation which has arisen through President Wilson's message.

This attitude was summarized in the reply to the British labor party, in which the Italian Socialists said: "The Wilsonian ideals are daily spoiled by capitalistic governments, which including the English and United States governments, vie in bringing Wilsonism into the affairs of other countries, but who are imperialistic in the affairs of their own country."

The reply ends: "We condemn the policy of all capitalistic governments and urge the proletariat world to follow the principles proclaimed at Zimmerwald."

Knighthood Will Be No More

Hereditary Titles in the Dominion Will Also Be Dealt With

Ottawa. — The discontinuance of the conferring of knightships on Canadians residing in Canada was decided upon by the special committee of the commons dealing with titles at a recent sitting. The matter of other distinctions will be considered at another meeting to be held this week. The committee also concurred in the recommendation decided upon favoring the abolition of hereditary titles. A proposed amendment by Dr. Cowan, of Regina, favoring the establishment of an academy of merit was held over for discussion at the next meeting of the committee.

A. R. McMaster made the motion in favor of the discontinuance of titles.

W. F. Cockshutt in amendment, moved that the committee should find that while it did not favor the immediate discontinuance of titles, more discretion should be exercised in the granting of such honors by his majesty and his advisors in the future. The amendment was rejected on a vote of 20 to 3, and the McMaster motion declared carried.

Those who favored the amendment were Sir Herbert Ames, Dr. Michael Clark and the mover of the amendment.

The action of the committee applies only to knightships, both military and civilian. It means that if the recommendation is acted upon there will be no additional knightships granted for war service.

Treaty Presented at Second Session

Versailles. — The first session of the peace congress will be held in the room now used by the supreme war council and will be devoted to a presentation of credentials. The text of the peace treaty will be presented to the Germans at the second session in the dining room of the Hotel Tranon. This is a superb apartment, seventy-five feet square and having windows almost entirely around three sides, making it virtually a room enclosed in glass.

The delegates will proceed to the conference chamber through a marble corridor, lined with mirrors on one side and opening on the park from the other.

Held as Hostages

Copenhagen. — Hundreds of intellectuals are being arrested at Budapest, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Berlingske Tidende. It is reported that one of the people's commissaries has explained that they will be held as hostages and would "pay with their blood for every step the Rumanians take within the frontiers of Hungary."

Press Censorship Over

Ottawa. — Press censorship under the direction of the press censor has ceased. ## DISORDERS IN PARIS

Demonstrations Aimed at Government in May Day Celebration

Paris. — Serious disorders occurred in Paris on the occasion of the celebration of May Day. French blood flowed in the streets of Paris and weapons that so lately had been used against the foe were turned against friends, brothers and sisters.

Particular efforts were made by the mobs to invade the Place de la Concorde and reach the chamber of deputies and the war ministry, where demonstrations had been planned. It was in these attempts that the casualties occurred. "Long live the Poilu!" the crowd shouted at the Madeleine and in the Place de la Concorde as they surged toward the soldiers, and with pale, drawn faces, the infantry withdrew and allowed the mob to reach the Place de la Concorde against a wall of policemen and determined cavalry.

Will Not Wait for Italians

Conference Has Decided to Go Ahead With Treaty

Paris. — It is planned in peace conference circles to go ahead with the treaty of peace without regard to any action by Italy, as it is considered probable the Italian delegation will not return, certainly not within the week. The delivery of the treaty and the first exchanges with the Germans, therefore, will occur without the participation of Italy, and it is said that this procedure will go forward steadily up till the signing of the treaty. When the first reading with the Germans occurs the pact will be presented.

A day or two will be given for questions concerning interpretations of different phases of the convention, without, however, involving a prolonged discussion. The French view is that the German way "ask for two weeks" delay to permit them to return to Weimar, with an additional week for discussion of the points presented after their return from the temporary German capital. This is a matter of conjecture, however, as there is no precise information as to Germany's intentions.

Reports from Berlin are somewhat contradictory concerning Germany's purposes, as some reports indicate that an early signing of the treaty is probable, while others say that it is doubtful whether the pact will be signed at all. These reports, coming from different sources, indicate a lack of concerted attitude as to the treaty and show there is disposition to leave the decision largely with the German plenipotentiaries who are now at Versailles.

Japan Wins Out

Transfer of Shantung Peninsula To Japan Without Reserve Is Likely

Paris. — The agreement regarding the Shantung peninsula and Kiaochow, which has been reached between the council of three and the Japanese delegates, provides for their transfer without reserve to Japan, which voluntarily engages to hand the Shantung peninsula back to China.

"The Kiaochow settlement is a clear victory for Japan," says the Reuters correspondent. "The council of three, after hearing both Chinese and Japanese delegates, arrived at the conclusion that the Japanese demands must be satisfied. Japan receives free disposition of Kiaochow in accordance with her treaty with China in 1915."

It will be left to the Chinese and Japanese governments to agree upon the details of the carrying out of the treaty of 1915 and the agreements made in 1918.

Few Unemployed In Old Country

Large Numbers Have Been Absorbed by Peace Industries

London. — In defending the government's policy of donation to the unemployed, Sir Robert Stevenson Horne, the minister of labor, in the house of commons said it was unnecessary to take a gloomy view of the armistice, he said, four million persons have been demobilized from the army and naval forces and from civilian employment and one million remain unemployed. Eighty per cent. of the demobilized soldiers, fifty per cent. of the civilian males and forty-five per cent. of the civilian women, have been absorbed by the peace industries.

This, the minister added, was a remarkable achievement when it was remembered that the central empires and Russia, which before the war had taken one-fourth of the British exports, were still closed in trade, and that China, Japan and New Zealand, which used to take another quarter, were virtually cut off owing to the shipping difficulties.

Italy, it is pointed out, obviously intends to give Premier Orlando a free hand in dealing with her interests.

The den shown on the left of the front entrance may very readily be used to advantage as an office by the present day business-like farmer.

Such details as a wash room, an amply large, lighted pantry, and a large kitchen have been taken care of by the architect.

Plan To Launch League Next Fall

Paris. — Plans for launching the league of nations were pretty definitely outlined at a luncheon which Col. E. M. House gave to Sir James Eric Drummond, the secretary general of the league; Lord Robert Cecil, and others. The plans are divided into three main stages.

First—Preparatory details, which will be worked out at headquarters to be established at London during the coming summer.

Second—The inauguration of the league at Washington next October.

Third—The permanent establishment of the league at Geneva next fall or winter.

The preparatory details will begin soon after the signing of the treaty and will be in the hands of the committee designated by President Wilson's resolution before the last plenary session of the conference. Lord Robert Cecil, Col. House and the Greek premier, M. Venizelos, will be among the members.

Leon Bourgeois will probably not be the French member, as he does not speak English. Most of the proceedings will be in English and it is expected that only members of the committee will be chosen who speak that language.

Col. House, with a considerable staff, will remain in Europe after the conference closes and headquarters will be removed to London, which is more convenient for preliminary work.

President Wilson will fix the date of the first meeting and ask the nations to name their three delegates to attend the inaugural gathering at Washington.
